1991 HOMECOMING COURT

Lebanon Valley College's Homecoming weekend, held October 11, 12, 13, was full of activities for everyone on campus.

The celebration opened with a bonfire and pep rally Friday night, preparing the Valley for the following day's game against Albright. During the festivities, Joe Curran was crowned Homecoming King.

On Saturday morning, the traditional Homecoming Campus Carnival was held in the Social Quad, in conjunction with the annual Homecoming parade. Many students and alumni turned out to visit the booths sponsored by college organizations.

During halftime, the members of the Homecoming court made an appearance, and Danielle Fetters was crowned the Homecoming Queen.

The activities of Homecoming Weekend were rounded out by the student play "An Evening of the Supernatural, Through a Shattered Looking Glass".

CHRISTMAS IN THE VALLEY

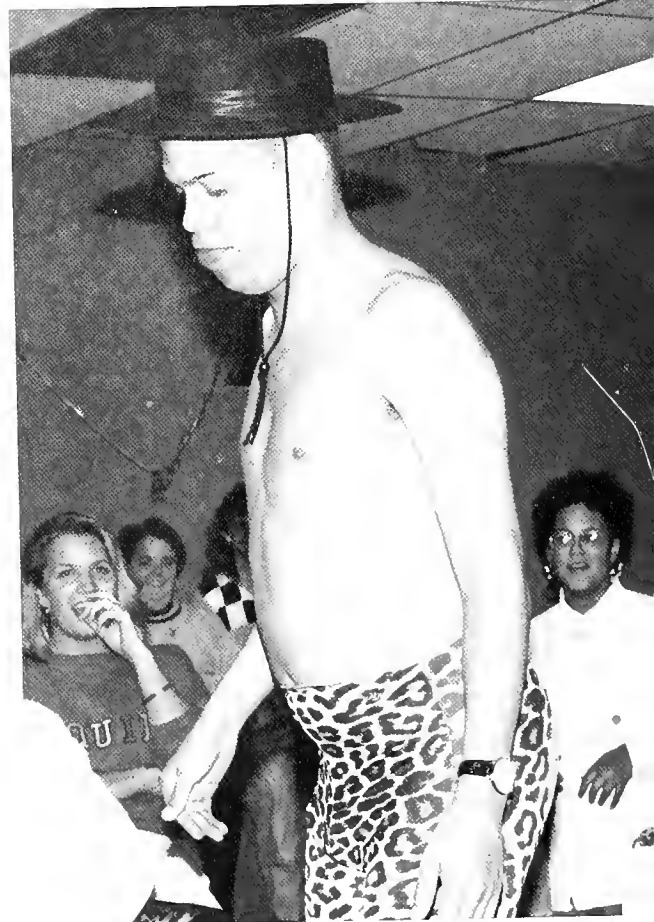

LVC THEATRE PRESENTS...

Two highlights to LVC's theater world during the 1991-92 theater season were the ever popular and highly-attended Homecoming Play and Winter Play. When the students responsible for organizing the annual Homecoming Play sat down and began to banter, first-time director Troy Neidermyer firmly expressed his desire to create something uniquely thought-provoking. After collaborating with the producer, contracting a choreographer to open the show, and inviting local thespian, Richard Wilson, to guest direct part of the show, the event was eventually titled, "Through a Shattered Looking Glass: An Evening of the Supernatural." After much hard work and dedication, the totally unpredictable entertainment challenged the audience to leave reality at the theater doors and to experience something unusual. From a light and sound spectacular of dance to the twisted ironies of justice in "Hello Out There," starring Rob Gale and Steph Allen, to the unknown whereabouts of Stanley created Rachel Merritt, to the confusing nature of "It," featuring John Black, to the existential dilemma of "Do," starring Stacy Gilbert and Brigitte Cuffia, and to the on-the-edge-of-your-seat suspense of "Monkey's Paw," featuring Andy Hostetler and Jenn Hansen, the audience was shocked, thrilled, and delighted. The unearthly reading of Edgar Allen Poe's "The Raven" completed the suspenseful Homecoming Play.

In 1963, Neil Simon told the story of fun-loving Corie Bratter and her conservative husband, lawyer Paul Bratter, in his classic comedy, "Barefoot in the Park." On the weekend of February 7, 8, and 9, 1992, Alpha Psi Omega presented its version of the show, with the "good old" hole in the skylight, Knichi, and Uzu. Corrie and Paul find their "lovenest" disintegrating as the two begin to feel that they have nothing in common. Trouble brews when Corie, played by Brigitte Cuffia, tries to play matchmaker for her mother, Mrs. Banks, played by Sarah Thompson, by arranging a blind date with the eccentric upstairs neighbor, Victor Velasco, played by Shawn Weigel. Paul, performed by Troy Neidermyer, regards this as a fiasco and the young couple begin a quarrel in which they both say things which they soon regret. Eventually, they resolve their differences and Victor, Ethel, Corie, and Paul begin an interesting relationship. There were also appearances by John Gross, the telephone man, and William Trexler, as the exhausted delivery man, both of whom added to this comedic play.

Biosphere 2 Experiment Begun

A sealed structure of steel and glass will be "home" for two years to four men and four women. The structure called Biosphere 2, is about the size of 2½ football fields and contains all necessities of life. For two years, nothing will be introduced from the outside.

In addition to the humans, Biosphere houses 5 ecosystems and 3,800 species of plants and animals. This $100 million project hopes to be the model for other self-sufficient environments. Planets other than Earth may one day be the base for similar structures.

Kuwait Oil Well Fires Burn

Firefighters were unprepared for the sight they were met with in Kuwait - scores of oil wells sending plumes of red and orange flames. Oil lakes and soot blackened the sand. During the seven-month Iraqi occupation of Kuwait, more than 730 oil wells were damaged or set ablaze. Oil experts say that if the present effort to clean up 8.5 oil wells a day continues, the wells should be capped before the end of the year, earlier than the projected date of March 1992.

Coup in Soviet Union

Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev and his family were placed under house arrest in the Crimea on August 19, 1991, as an eight-man emergency committee led by Vice President Genadi Yanayev took power in a coup attempt in the Soviet Union. Boris Yeltsin called on Russians to resist the takeover. Constructing a protective human wall around Yeltsin's headquarters, his supporters demanded Gorbachev's return.

Eventually, the coup failed and all coup leaders were arrested. Freedom has come to the Soviet Union.

Operation Welcome Home

Desert Storm Commander General H. Norman Schwarzkopf gave a thumbs up to the crowd as he made his way up Broadway during New York's Operation Welcome Home ticker tape parade. Schwarzkopf, General Colin Powell and Defense Secretary Dick Cheney were the grand marshals of the New York parade, with over 600,000 people turning out to welcome the soldiers home. More than 1 million people turned out for a welcome home parade in Hollywood and an estimated 800,000 viewed the Washington parade.

Hill Awakens Debate Over Harassment

Life has not been the same for law professor Anita Hill since going public with allegations that Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas sexually harassed her nearly a decade ago.

Although Thomas was confirmed, professor Hill insisted that by letting her story be known she had accomplished everything she set out to do. She hopes that the general public is now more aware of sexual harassment. Hill advises victims of sexual harassment to find someone they can trust and tell them about their experience.

Magic Contracts HIV Virus

Magic Johnson who has entertained basketball fans for over a decade announced on November 7, 1991, that he had tested positive for the HIV virus and was retiring. Johnson has said that he would become an AIDS activist and campaign for safe sex.

More than just a basketball star who led the Lakers to five NBA championships, Johnson has been a philanthropist, a prominent spokesman, and a role model for young people.

Terry Anderson Freed

Terry Anderson emerged on December 4, 1991, from the dark hole of 6½ years of captivity in Lebanon and was handed over to U.S. officials, ending a brutal hostage ordeal for both himself and the United States. Asked what had kept him going in captivity, Anderson, the chief Middle East correspondent for "The Associated Press" said it was his companions, his faith and his stubbornness.

Anderson, the longest-held Western hostage came to personify the long-running hostage ordeal. He was the 13th and last American hostage freed since Shiite extremists in 1984 launched a campaign of seizing foreigners in Lebanon to drive out Western influence which they claimed corrupted the nation. Many of the Americans were tortured and beaten during their captivity, and three died.

SPRING ARTS FESTIVAL

On April 24, 25, and 26, 1992, Lebanon Valley College hosted its 22nd Annual Spring Arts Festival Weekend. Despite the threat of rain, the weekend was a huge success according to Mark Benson, student coordinator of the event. Along with many alumni, family, and friends, members of the community came out for the weekend-long celebration. Everyone enjoyed the arts, crafts, music, and theater performances.

Featured during the festival were LVC Concert Choir, Jazz Band, Clarinet Choir, College Chorus, and the Hispanic Culture Club Dancers. Various high school talents were also showcased throughout the weekend, including Lebanon High Show Choir and Washington High School Steel Drum Band. Camilla Schade and Co-Motion thrilled the crowd with their impromptu sketches.

The Spring Arts Festival Committee deserves many congratulations and thanks for an excellent job organizing this busy weekend. All of their efforts throughout the year made this weekend both successful and entertaining!

FOOTBALL

The 1991 Lebanon Valley College Football Team finished the season with a record of 6-3-1, the school's best record since 1975. The team finished in a tie for the third place in the Middle Atlantic Conference and completed a Perfect (5-0) home season by shutting out Juniata. The season was highlighted by several outstanding individual efforts, with senior linebacker Joe Curran and junior wide receiver Bob Schwenk being named to the All-MAC First Team. Junior quarterback Eric Orndorf broke five school passing records and was an All-MAC Second Team selection. With many players returning for next year's team, the future looks bright for Lebanon Valley Football.

FIELD HOCKEY

The LVC field hockey team under the direction of MAC Coach of the Year, Kathy Tierney, won the 1991 Middle Atlantic Conference Championship and received numerous national and conference awards for their achievements. The team with five freshman starters finished the season with a record of 15-7-2.

Sue Leonard and Sandy Fauser were named to the College Field Hockey Coaches Association (CFHCA) Division III National All-American First Team. Julie Brymesser was named a Third Team CFCHA All-American, a CFCHA Academic All-American and a MAC Academic All-Conference honor roll member. Fauser, Leonard, and Brymesser were also named to the CFCHA Division III Regional First Team. Dawn Hickman was named to the CFCHA Division III Regional Second Team. Receiving MAC All-Conference recognition were Hickman, Brymesser, and Fauser who also led the team in scoring for the season. The team finished eighth in the nation losing in the second round of the NCAA Region I Championship.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

In her second year as coach, Kathy Nelson's team posted a 4-20 season with a 0-10 MAC record. Though these numbers may not seem to be a cause for optimism, they are about average for the team over the last four years. There were at least four home games that Lebanon Valley was one or two field goals and a couple of free throws away from winning.

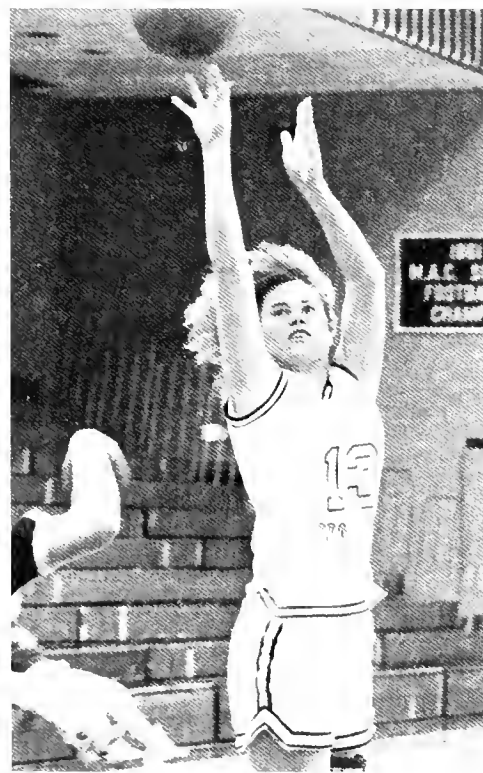

Statistic leaders for the season were senior Kathryn Ford with 236 points, junior Jan Orgucak with 185 rebounds, and senior Pam Grove with 44 assists and 43 steals. Coach Nelson stated that the team had improved throughout the season in their pressure defense and passing game.

SWIMMING

BASEBALL

Lebanon Valley ended their season with a 15-17 record. Because of the losses, LVC also lost the chance for an invitation to the ECAC tournament.

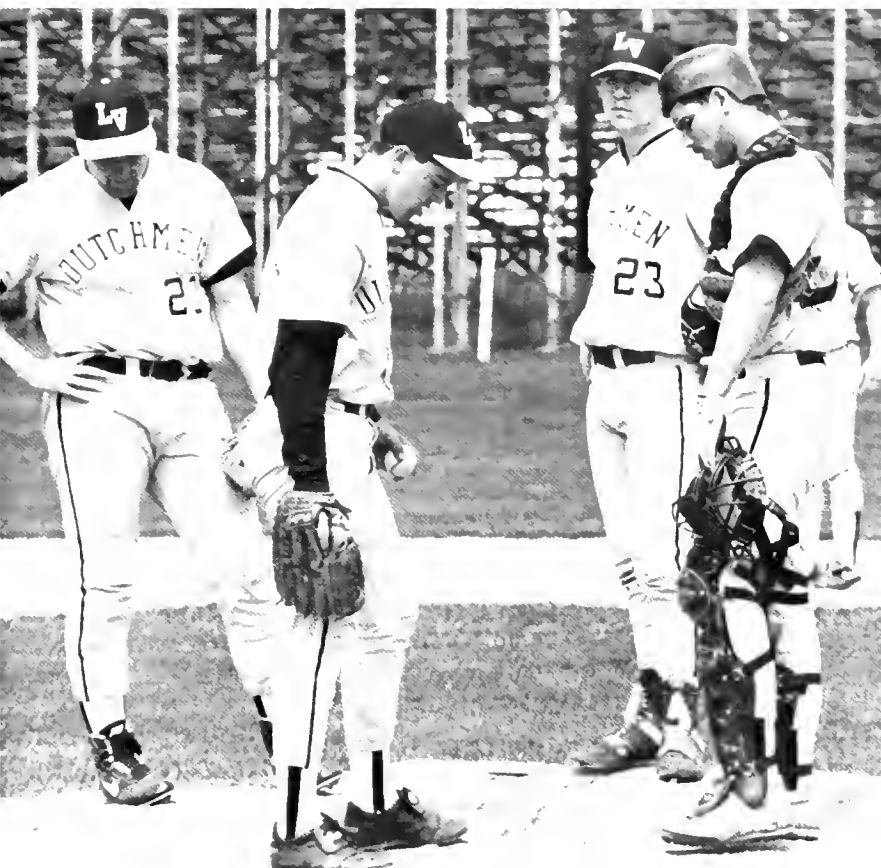

One of the primary concerns for next year will be pitching. While at times the young trowers showed flashes of brilliance, inexperience proved to be fatal. Experience will come with time, and until then the team will be looking for Trevor Ritter and Mike Neff to lead the pitching staff.

Probably the strongest point of the team was fielding. Todd Beasley proved to be a mainstay in the infield, while Rick Cottle, Eric Stouch, and Craig Wolfe shored up the outfield. One important thing to remember about the team is that only four players are graduating, leaving a virtual goldmine in underclassmen. Next year, the baseball team will be a team to watch!

Safe!

Batter up!

The Dutchmen confer on the mound.

SOFTBALL

It was a building season for the women's softball team under coach, Kathy Nelson. The team returned with a 2-0 record from spring training at Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Kathryn Ford and Dawn Hickman were the senior co-captains of the twelve-member squad. The team got off to a slow start in the season due to the rain and the snow of the unpredictable weather. Although the team had managed to hit well in most of their games, they were unable to score the needed runs. The team is now concentrating on defense, cooperation, and team unity. At press time, the team's record was 4-12 with 5 more games remaining. The team hopes to end their season with a few more wins.

Great catch!

OUTDOOR TRACK

The men's track team had an impressive undefeated record of 11-0 in its dual meets. Coach Kent Reed attributes the success to the team's dedication and good attitudes.

Two men on the team share not only the same first name, but incredible accomplishments as well. Junior Scott Davis had an exceptional season as a javelin thrower. Davis' throw of 208 feet and 9 inches has earned him the number one seed for the Mid-Atlantic Conference competition and has qualified him for Nationals. Senior Scott Young, long-distance runner, has qualified for the MAC steeplechase competition, the 1500 meter, and the 5000 meter.

The team will travel to Franklin and Marshall College for the MAC competition. Coach Reed hopes for good performances for Scott Davis and Scott Young, along with Greg Kutz (pole vault) and Ross DeNisco (shot put).

A Special Thank You to:

for all of your expert advice and help when we came down to the wire. Thanks for helping us through the rough times and for telling us to RELAX.

-Taylor Publishing Company for your patience and understanding when our pages were “in the mail” and for your professional service.

-Mark Huff and DaVor Photography for sending numerous photographers to take pictures when we didn't have a photography staff. Thanks for all the rush developing you did for us.

-LVC Student Council

for your financial help. Thanks for helping us meet our budget projections!

-Public Relations

for many sports pictures we were unable to take.

-College Center Desk Staff

for answering all our questions, identifying caption pictures, and handing out last year's books for us.

-Alice

for your patience in dealing with me when I was hysterical after a long day in the office and for mailing our mail when we couldn't take the time to do it ourselves.

-Ms. Jane Paluda

A special thanks for being our advisor. You did a great job helping us through the budget mess and through all the changes we made to the book.

-Lisa

for being the greatest co-editor. You helped a lot by manning the computer because as you know, I am not a computer fan. Thanks for all the pep talks and reminding me to RELAX!!
